

Job Opportunity: Investment Research Associate with Schilit Forensics

Schilit Forensics, a buy-side forensic accounting consultancy, is looking to hire associates to join its investment research team in its Midtown NYC office. The role provides an opportunity to gain experience and expertise in financial statement analysis, forensic accounting as applied to investment decisions, and executive-level written communication, as well as exposure to the investment process at top-tier investment funds.

Key Responsibilities:

- Supporting senior staff across the research process
- Conducting financial statement analysis
- Reviewing public company presentations, quarterly/annual reports, other regulatory filings
- Organizing and analyzing key operational and accounting metrics
- Preparing client-facing deliverables

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree from a widely-respected university
- Proficiency in financial accounting: coursework in Intermediate Accounting is required
- Demonstrated interest in investing and capital markets
- Progress towards CPA and/or CFA certification preferred
- Strong candidates will be self-motivated, hard-working, curious, team-oriented, and have a track record of high achievement

Career progression: The associate role is designed as a 2-3 year position. Following that period, individuals may progress to become an Investment Research Analyst, or will be well situated to seek analyst opportunities at investment firms, to matriculate into a top MBA program, or a myriad of additional career paths.

Company culture and benefits: Schilit Forensics seeks to provide an exciting, challenging, rewarding, and supportive work experience. We provide a strong suite of benefits and policies that promote work-life balance, health and wellbeing, and ongoing learning and development.

To apply:

The application includes: 1) your cover letter / personal narrative describing your interest in this role; 2) your resume; and 3) an online assessment which takes approximately 30 minutes.

About Schilit Forensics

Schilit Forensics is an expert forensic accounting consultancy serving institutional investors and other stakeholders. The Company provides customized and proprietary due diligence research based on forensic accounting analysis, as well as educational and training programs.

The Firm is led by Howard Schilit, a pioneer in the field of forensic accounting research, and author of Financial Shenanigans (originally published in 1993, now in its 4th edition). Our senior leadership team includes Jeremy Perler and Yoni Engelhart, both of whom were trained by Howard in the early 2000's and have deep and varied experience as forensic analysts and buy-side investors. Jeremy and Yoni are co-authors of the latest edition of Financial Shenanigans. The Schilit Forensics team has uncovered some of the most egregious accounting frauds of the past generation, and also provided early warnings on scores of other companies that used unusual or aggressive accounting practices to mask operational deterioration.
